

THE BETTENDORF ROTARY CLUB NEWS

Bettendorf, Iowa, Rotary Club
May 21, 2014, issue

Next meeting:

Wednesday, May 28, 2014, at the Fortune Garden Restaurant

We'll hear from Miss. Valley Fair's director

This year the Mississippi Valley Fair marks its 95th anniversary, and Bob Fox, its veteran director, is the scheduled speaker for the May 28 meeting. This year's fair runs July 29-Aug. 3.

The fair boasts "six days and nights of action-packed games, rides, concerts and other entertainment," according to its Web site. The fair typically draws 300,000 visitors during its run, making it one of the largest fairs in Iowa. And during the other 51 weeks of the year, the fairgrounds hosts a comparable number of people who attend events ranging from private parties to political rallies, dirt-track races to weddings.

JDC director talks about '14 tourney

John Deere thinks so much of the job Clair Peterson is doing as director of the John Deere Classic that the company has made that his only assignment, said Decker Ploehn while introducing his friend who talked about this year's tournament at the May 21 meeting.

His admiration for the event was obvious as Clair talked about the July 7-13 PGA event at TPC Deere Run in Coal Valley. We'll have "156 of the world's greatest players," Clair said. About 20 of them have won golf tournaments within the last year.

Besides the obvious high quality of the golfers who will play at Deere Run, the QC community has other sources of pride associated with the event, as Clair described them:

→The charity funds raised through Birdies for Charity at the JDC "are among the top 10 total dollars in the PGA,” he said. “And we’re No. 1 in per capita giving” in all of the 46 PGA tournaments, he added.

→The PGA named the Riverbend Food Bank its Charity of the Year last year, awarding it $30,000.

Clair talked about highlights from recent years – describing some of the spectacular shots that determined winners – and ended up on the PGA’s “highlight reel” of crowd-pleasing shots that appear often in the golf association’s self-promotions. Shots such as those have prompted the tournament’s theme this year: “Magic Happens Here.”

→Sign up to marshal at our hole: As in past years, a signup sheet went around the room during the meeting to secure marshals for BRC’s Hole No. 1. Members, family members and friends are all welcome to serve as marshals at “the best hole at the John Deere Classic.” To volunteer, contact Jeff Hassel (hassel14@gmail.com / 332-1982) or Steve Piart (355-3147 / smharmony@netexpress.net) – or sign up at the BRC Web site.

New member inductions...

S.K. Nanda inducted two new members into the club, Andy Erpelding and Lee Marbach.

Andy, with Quad City Bank & Trust, was sponsored by Dick Schillig. After living in other communities for a while, Davenport Andy and his wife moved to Bettendorf about 4 years ago when their daughter Charlie experienced health problems. She’s “much better now,” Andy said, and he’s grateful for the community’s support while she was ill. “I joined Rotary so I can now give back to this community,” he said.

Lee has worked with Russell Construction for about 4 years. He and his wife are parents of 2 daughters. Active in the community, Lee serves on the boards of the QC design-build organization and Habitat for Humanity, where he met Ozzie Oswald, who sponsored his membership.

Scholarship students...

Jim Spelhaug introduced the $1,000 Service above Self Scholarships from Pleasant Valley High School, Shraddha

Kumar and Kelsey Clinginsmith. Shraddha plans to study neuro-science at UCLA. During high school, she has volunteered at Gilda's Club, at the Genesis West Campus gift shop and as a tutor for 5th graders. Accepted at the University of St. Louis, Kelsey first voluntarily served on two mission trips with her church; she also volunteered twice a week at Trinity – Unity Point Health System.

R.I. reveals new logo...

Rotary has introduced new branding and logos, and Glenn Kass has downloaded all of the new imaging for Rotary. He's also created a new Bettendorf Rotary logo based on the new guidelines from R.I.:

Glenn will start using it on future news releases to QC media, and soon you'll be seeing it in all BRC communications.

Announcements...

→ LobsterFest: Sharon Sarver

continued to recruit volunteers to fill specific jobs at the June 14 LobsterFest. She asked for members to bring large coolers to contain beverages – so many held up their hands that she just said, "Bring 'em!"

she just said, "Bring 'em!"

Sharon also said she needed at least 8 spotters during the auctions – again, many volunteered.

Other volunteer jobs still must be filled, so Sharon passed around a signup sheet – and she urged members to sign up for setup on Friday and Saturday and cleanup after the event.

Although Sharon will be absent the next two meetings – she'll be in Sydney, Australia, at the Rotary International Convention, you can still volunteer online: Contact Sharon Sarver (ssarver529@yahoo.com / 320-7180), or President Chelsea (468-4053 / cpowers@holmesmurphy.com)

→One BRC Board vacancy: The BRC Board of Directors has a vacancy on the presidential track for the 2014-15 Rotary year. It is the vocational services chair – the first position in a 6-year commitment leading to the club presidency. To be considered for the position, just send an email by May 28 to President Chelsea (cpowers@holmesmurphy.com). The Board will vote to fill the vacancy at its June meeting.

→Opportunity to volunteer: Family Resources aims to “Fill a Truck” with food items for charity 9 a.m. – noon Saturday, June 21, at the Devils Glen HyVee – and Sharon Sarver is looking for 4 volunteers to help. (320-7180 / ssarver529@yahoo.com).

➔ Read to Succeed: Theron Schutte

thanked all the volunteers who worked with 1st and 2nd graders on improving their reading (and sometimes writing) skills during this school year. In all 26 volunteers worked with children in the Bettendorf Community School district.

Theron urged all to respond to the email seeking feedback on the program – and volunteer again next school year.

He also asked for volunteers to help young readers during the summer school program during 3 weeks in July at Neil Armstrong Elementary School. Contact Theron: (tschutte@bettendorf.k12.ia.us 359-3681).
