BETTENDORF
ROTARY CLUB NEWS
Bettendorf, Iowa, Rotary Club
Jan. 25, 2017, issue

Next meeting:
Wednesday, Feb. 1, 2017, at Tanglewood Pavilion

It's an update on the River Music Experience

From fighting the Winter Blues to sending young musicians to KidStock Sumer Music Camp, the River Music Experience provides “fun, educational and top-shelf programming,” according to its Website.

Bret Dale of the RME will update us at the Feb. 1 meeting on “the state of our educational programming” in the wake of the recent tragic death of Ellis Kell, who conceived and directed much of that activity.

“We have workshops, classes and private lessons for every interest, age and skill level, covering a variety of different music genres,” Bret says. Because RME “is committed to providing... music programs to all regardless of the ability to pay a fee,” scholarships are available.

Last meeting:
Wednesday, Jan. 25, 2017

(BRC Charitable Grants recipients are identified on page 6.)

Grants awarded to 12 QC agencies

The Charities Board of BRC awarded grants worth a total of $20,500 to 12 not-for-profit agencies during the Jan. 25 meeting at Tanglewood Pavilion.

Charities Board members who participated in the awards were Jeff Hassel, Chelsea Powers, Sharon Sarver, Annette Martinez and Richard “Ozzie” Oswald, along with the major sponsors of last June’s LobsterFest, John DeDoncker of Triumph Community Bank and Bill Daley of Abbey Carpets. Funds for the grants were raised during the LobsterFest last June. Two board members, Ann Kappeler and Kevin Kraft, were out of town and could not attend.

Recipient organizations are:

Big Brothers Big Sisters of the Mississippi Valley will use its $1,500 grant in its Job Readiness Program. Jay Justin explained, “A part of our middle and high school initiative prepares at-risk youth for summer and after-school employment.

Camp Shalom will apply its $1,500 grant toward building a Human Foosball Court, which Tom Bley said would be an outdoor activity in which people of all levels can participate at their new camp program for adults with disabilities.

Churches United of the quad City Area received a $2,000 grant to be used for Winnie’s Place Emergency Shelter for women and their children, said Ann Wachal (with Bill Daley and John DeDoncker).

The Family Museum of arts and Science Foundation will apply its $2,000 to provide free admission to school children in its Free and Reduced Lunch Program. Amy Cannady could not attend the awards luncheon.

Family Resources provides crisis intervention for at-risk youth, which serves the immediate safety needs of troubled kids in the Scott County region. The $2,000 grant that Nisha Ladlee received frees police officers from having to do “double duty” as social workers.

Hand in Hand will use its $2,000 grant to upgrade some facilities to help accommodate growth and develop some program innovations for the future, according to Mark Smith.

Handicapped Development Center will apply its $1,500 grant toward purchasing musical instruments for a Sensory Path it is developing on the grounds of its 54-bed Residential Center in northwest Davenport, explained Jeff Ashcraft.

Martin Luther King Jr. Community

Center in Rock Island will use its $2,000 grant in support of its Metropolitan Youth Program, which provides a structured environment that encourages its youthful participants to develop academically, socially and economically, according to Jerry Jones.

The Ovarian Cancer Initiative of the NormaLeah Foundation uses its $1,000 grant to support Sisterly Advice Tea Chats, in which women “and the men who love them” become educated about ovarian cancer, said Jodie Kavensky.

Quad City Arts will help support its Visiting Artist Series in QC area schools with the $2,000 grant; Margot Day explained that visiting artists and performance ensembles will provide some 120 engagements and reach more than 26,000 students in their schools.

Rebuilding Together Quad Cities

repairs and rehabilitates the homes of people living in poverty who cannot physically or financially make those improvements themselves, said Carol Triebel, who received the $2,000 grant.

YouthHope Ministry will use its $1,000 to help provide equipment that it can use to outfit a softball team for girls in low-income families, according to Kevin Perrine.

Announcements...

➔ Endowment Account pledges:

President Jonna reminded members of the club’s commitment to expand its Endowment Account by $10,000 per year for five years. “We met that goal last year,” she said, adding, “It’s time to make a pledge” for this year’s effort. Pledges will be matched by the club, dollar for dollar, Jonna said. The Endowment Account enables BRC to carry on its charitable giving commitments if ever regular fundraising should not provide all the funds needed.

➔BBBS Mini-Golf champs... again:

For the second straight year, the Bettendorf Rotary team – Will Doland (celebrating the victory), Scott Naumann, Todd Larson and Rich “Ozzie” Oswald – obliterated all other Rotary clubs in the Big Brothers Big Sisters fundraising mini-golf tournament. You can see some of the scores for yourself.

➔Dates to remember:

➔State of the City address by our own Mayor Bob Gallagher is scheduled for Wednesday, Feb. 15, at the Waterfront Convention Center – come a bit early to get a good seat for this event, which replaces that day’s regular BRC meeting.

➔BRC’s annual social, is slated for the evening of Wednesday, Feb. 22, at Davenport Country Club from 6:00 – 8:30 pm. Cost is $10/per person. Guests are invited. Please RSVP to Johanna at bettendorfrotary@gmail.com.

Happy $$...

President Jonna Schuler collected $242 with some added income from these happy members:

Frank Mitvalsky – Thanks to Ron Crist and “Ozzie” Oswald for judging the Pack 54 Pinewood Derby + a proud papa moment when his son Sam and his teammates on the BHS swim team broke the existing record for the frosh / soph 200-year relay... Jennifer Garlach – the Boys and Girls Clubs fundraiser auction was a big success – thanks to Decker Ploehn for being emcee... Bill Daley thanked all who participated in Tuesday’s 24-hours of prayer for strength for Dave Deuth during the first phase of an intensive chemotherapy and stem-cell transplant procedure – 39 Rotarians plus 18 more “prayer warriors” participated, Bill reported... Tim Lane – some $$ because “the Dow topped 20000 today”... President Jonna – Scott Naumann will preside next week because she’ll be with a group hiking to the floor of the Grand Canyon...

Leave a Rotary legacy... 3 ideas for a $10,000 gift

By Jim Slavens

(Many thanks to Jim for this 4-part series of articles on your Rotary legacy.)

In May 2017 there will be a million-dollar dinner recognizing Rotarians who have: (1) Made a gift to the Rotary Foundation of $10,000 or more, (2) Pledged a gift of $10,000 or more over 5 years, or (3) Put in their last will and testament a gift to the Rotary Foundation of $10,000 or more. There are many other possibilities, such as giving stocks or land or other assets to the Rotary Foundation.

Please take a minute today to set up a meeting with Jim Slavens or Carl Loweth to discuss your proposed Rotary legacy. Of course, tax deductions are available with a charitable gift.

The meeting opened...

The bell sounded, President Jonna Shuler called the meeting to order, and extended a welcome to the Bettendorf Rotary Club’s annual presentation of charitable grants. She led the recitation of the 4-Way Test and deferred to Tom Howard who, accompanied by Deana Severs on piano, led the singing of “This Is My Country.” President Jonna led the Pledge of Allegiance.

During the Moment of Silence we learned Mike Mickle’s mother had died, and we asked for healing for Dave Deuth who has entered a new phase of his cancer fight.

After introductions, the songfest resumed with renditions of “All Hail to Rotary” and “Let There Be Peace on Earth.”
